Another Guy Who's "Doing It"

We'd like to introduce you to Tad Agoglia. Here's another unsung "hero" - a guy who's been doing it and continues to do it. Although CNN rewarded him back in 2008 as one of their heroes, we don't hear much about him day after day but that doesn't seem to bother him at all. We talked to him a couple of weeks ago as he was on his way to yet another disaster area in America and helping people hit hard by recent flooding.

Check it out and watch for more on Tad coming soon...

There needs to be about a billion more people just like him. I hope I never 'need' to meet Tad, but it's nice to know that people like him are out there.

"There needs to be about a billion more people just like him"

I couldn't agree more Dani.
Thanks for posting this video about Tad Agoglia.
It would seem that he's really one of "the good guys".
